

NATIONAL INSTITUTE
FOR WORLD TRADE
TRAINING THE WORLD

THE GLOBAL FREIGHT MARKET: MANAGING THE COST, DELAY, CAPACITY, AND DEMAND

Webinar

May 13, 2021

1:00PM-2:30PM EDT

Hosted by: National Institute for World Trade
New Import/Export Trade Professional's Group

Panel Discussion:

Five leaders in the Global Freight Industry
Michael Piza, VP, Apex Global Logistics
Jason Manganaro, VP, Sparx Logistics
Joseph Mantello, Director of Logistics, Qosina Corporation
Luz Cazeneuve, Director Operations, Dastech International Inc.
Debbie Cross, President, A.S.A.P. Logistics

Panel Moderator:

Thomas Cook, Managing Director Blue Tiger International

Agenda:

- Understanding and Framing the Issues in the increase in freight costs and extreme delays
- How will the Suez Canal Incident impact global supply chain
- In depth discussion on air, ocean and truck freight
- Identifying solutions and strategies to lower both risk and cost in the international logistics and freight markets

Participants will be actively engaged in asking questions, commenting and participation

Virtual Platform – Microsoft Teams (access information to be sent after registration/payment is received)

Advanced registration required

Registration $49.00

Includes white paper on "Managing the Current Freight Crisis"

Receive 1.5 NEI Credits

All proceeds go to SoldierOnAtHome.org
benefiting wounded combat
Veterans and service dogs

Register at https://niwt.org/event-registration/51321/